New production

I HEAR from MR. ANDREW SIEWRIGHT, hon. secretary of the Chelmsford Amateur Operatic and Dramatic Society, that rehearsals for the Society's production of "The Happiest Days of Your Life" start on Sept. 5.

This riotous farce of school life will be presented at the Regent theatre, Chelmsford, from Nov. 5 to 10. Guy Fawkes night seems a suitable opening night!

MARGARET RUTHERFORD played so well in both the play and the film.

The producer will be ROBERT VERNON, who made such a success of the Society's production of "Merrie England" this year.
