

Dramatics in the family

BROTHER and sister play an important part in "And So To Bed" at the Regent this week. They are PHIL and VALERIE BERKELEY, of Swiss Avenue, Chelmsford—both well known in the town for their keen interest in various arts societies.

Val plays a leading role, that of Pepys' wife, while Phil, much sought after by local drama groups for his able back-stage work, is responsible for special lighting effects. The Berkeleys are quite an acquisition for the Chelmsford Operatic and Dramatic Society, after many years' staying outside.
