

Midnight party

PRODUCER, cast and chorus of "Bitter-Sweet" are to mark their last performance at the Regent Theatre, Chelmsford, to-morrow night with a party at the Sunbeam Restaurant, Princes Rd. Mr. H. Catling, the proprietor, is providing buffet refreshments.

There will be a large gathering, as many of the cast will take a guest. Members of the orchestra and Mr. Charles Ham-bourg, the director, are expected to be there too.

Those in the show will have a long day to-mor-row; most will be at work in the morning, then they have two performances, one a matinee, followed by the party from 11 p.m. onwards.

Although Mr. Dick Glanville and Mrs. Helen Eldridge, two leading members of the cast, might be called professional amateurs, they are not, strictly speaking, professionals as stated on Tuesday. But Mr. Glanville has toured amateur operatic and dramatic societies for many years, playing lead parts, and Mrs. Eldridge has had eighteen months in a well-known repertory company, and studied elocution and ballet.
