

June plays 'Virginia'

NAME-part in "Virginia"—next Spring's production of the Chelmsford Operatic and Dramatic Society, will be taken by June Gisby, 21-year-old receptionist at the A.A. Offices, London Road, Chelmsford.

She appeared in the last three musical productions of the Society on the Regent Theatre stage. This time she plays the lighter role of comedienne, for which Society members believe she has natural talent.

A vivacious blonde, with a marked preference for blue, she lives in Victoria Road.
